How to Register for a Workshop

To register for workshops, visit either MontgomeryWorks location and ask to speak to a Resource Specialist. You may register for one computer workshop and one job-readiness workshop at a time.

Attendance Policy

- Reserved seats are held for customers on the main roster who arrive on time.
- Grace period*: Five (5) minutes after the scheduled start-time, “priority” or “reserved” status no longer applies - and available seats are released to customers on the standby roster.
- In fairness to all workshop participants, ten (10) minutes after the scheduled start-time (regardless of available seating), doors will be closed and workshops will begin. Customers arriving late will not be admitted. EXCEPTION: The ISU/WIA Orientation Workshop begins promptly when scheduled. There is no grace period for this workshop – please be early.
- Please call 301-946-1806 ext. 1607 to cancel a workshop if you are unable to attend or if you are unable to get into the workshop due to late arrival. Cancellations must be received no later than the day of the scheduled workshop in order to avoid penalties.
- Although MontgomeryWorks makes every effort to maintain our workshop schedules as assigned, calendars are subject to change.
- 3-3-3 Policy:
Customers who miss or arrive late for a scheduled workshop AND have not canceled in advance of the workshop (or within the same business day) will be considered “NO-SHOW.”
3 “no-shows” within a 3 month period of time will result in the customer being required to wait 3 months before registering for any additional workshops.

Inclement Weather Policy

Workshops MAY be cancelled if the instructor is delayed due to severe weather. BEFORE YOU TRAVEL, find out if your workshop is running or cancelled by calling the workshop status line: 301-946-1806 Ext. 1610. If we have cancelled your workshop because of severe weather, you may reschedule by phone or in person at any time.

Accommodations

MontgomeryWorks makes every effort to provide reasonable accommodations for our customers. Seven-business days advance notice is required to ensure availability of accommodations. Requests for accommodations must be made in person at the time of the workshop registration.

I can't STAND that person! An introduction to Conflict Management

Presented by the Conflict Resolution Center of Montgomery County

This workshop is an opportunity to look at something everyone deals with everyday, conflict, and to explore the different ways it can be handled. We all deal with annoying neighbors, demanding bosses, and significant others, friends, and roommates that get on our last nerve. This workshop is a chance to look at conflict, different methods to approach it, and how conflict can be a positive or a negative force. It is the first part of a three-part series of workshops you can attend to look at what conflict is, how we can deal with it, and skills that can be used along the way.

You Don't Ever Listen To Me...If You Would Have Listened the First Time...and other things you don't want to hear during an argument

Presented by the Conflict Resolution Center of Montgomery County

How do you show someone you're listening to them? How can you make another person feel heard? This workshop looks at strategies you can use to show another person you are listening, deescalate a situation, and maybe, just maybe find some understanding. Listening to what someone really has to say is one of the hardest thing for anyone to do, this is an opportunity to get some of the tools to really make someone feel heard. It is the second part of a three-part series of workshops that look at what conflict is, how we can deal with it, and skills that can be used along the way, but don't worry if you missed the first one, all are welcome.

“So what should we do now?”, “Alright smarty pants, what do you think we should do?”, “I don't know what we should do, but what's happening now isn't working!” – Creative Problem Solving

Presented by the Conflict Resolution Center of Montgomery County

Sometimes the hardest part of a conflict with another person is finding a solution. We do NOT claim to have those solutions, but this workshop is an opportunity to develop skills to find that common ground. Win-win solutions, ones where both people have their needs met, are the ideal solutions, but getting to that point is a challenge. This workshop is an opportunity to find ways to confront that challenge and hopefully overcome it. It is the second part of a three-part series of workshops that look at what conflict is, how we can deal with it, and skills that can be used along the way, but don't worry if you missed the first two, all are welcome.

What do you want to do with your life? Take the test. By Montgomery College Educational Opportunity Center (EOC)

If you have ever asked yourself “what do I want to do with my life,” and were left without any answers, a career assessment may be what you need. Individuals who attend this workshop will take a career assessment tool that will measure their likes and dislikes as it compares to professionals in various careers. After taking the assessment, codes connected to various complimentary careers will be provided. Individuals will then be able research the codes and obtain information about job outlook, earnings, working conditions & more for specific occupations. Resources for further exploration will follow.

Understanding FAFSA

By Montgomery College Educational Opportunity Center (EOC)

Do you need money to attend college? This workshop will explain the process to complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). You will also learn which type of grants, scholarships and loans you may qualify for when completing the FAFSA. You will have an opportunity to complete the FAFSA online at this training. You must bring your latest tax return and permanent resident number (if applicable) to complete the FAFSA online.
